INSTALLATION

1. Pre-cut one square opening with dimensions as shown in the diagram.

2. The embedded depth of this product is 65mm (2 17/32").

3. Push the plastic box into the wall. Make sure the side marked "UP FACE" on the plastic box is facing upward.

4. Install the decorative plate assembly into the plastic box. Ensure it is correctly positioned.

5. Screw the connector onto the pipe using an HIO wrench. Push the filter into the connector to create a seal; sealant tape is not required. Be careful not to overtighten the decorative plate assembly.

6. Verify that the position is correct. Ensure the body assembly is fully installed onto the connector. Upon completion of installation, check that all connections are secure.

7. Use an Allen key to tighten the M4X20 bolt into the body. Ensure the body and connector are securely fastened, and that the decorative plate does not move.

8. Install the outlet face assembly onto the body. Ensure the connection between the body and the outlet face assembly is secure. Use an bolt to fasten the outlet face to the body. Do not overtighten, as this may damage the outlet face.

9. Ensure the hole and bulge are aligned correctly, then install the decorative plate.

10. Ensure the hole and bulge are correctly aligned when pushing the decorative plate into the body. This side should be at the bottom when inserting the decorative plate into the outlet face. Slightly angle the outlet face, and also tilt the decorative plate slightly when inserting it into the outlet face. Adjust the outlet face while pushing the decorative plate to ensure it fits properly.

11. The product's angle can be adjusted as follows.
